DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Bennet Brick House is located at 12 Church Street, Lonaconing, Allegany County.

The Bennet House is a two story, three bay wide building constructed of brick laid in American Common Bond. The house is "L" shaped and rests on a low stone foundation. The roof is flat and covered with replaced asphalt roofing material. The roof has a wide soffit supported by brackets and a frieze. Windows in the structure are double hung, wooden sash frames with one over one lights and pegged frames. Each window is topped by a cornice with dentilated trim supported by two brackets. Several of the windows are flanked by the original louvered shutters. The main entrance is located on the west facade and features a double door with an elliptical glass panel in each door. The entrance is topped by an elliptical transom light which in turn is topped by a dentilated entablature supported by two brackets. The main entrance is covered by a hipped roof wrap around porch supported by Roman Doric columns and a balustrade. A second hipped roof enclosed porch is located in the rear of the building. Located to the north of the main entrance is a two story bay window. Three original, corbeled brick chimneys are located in the interior of the building.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The Bennett Brick House was probably constructed for David Sloan ca. 1872 on land purchased from the George's Creek Iron and Coal Company. The house remained in the Sloan family until 1965.¹ Both the size of the house and its location overlooking the town indicate that the original owner must have been a man of some wealth and importance.

Architecturally, the house is distinctive because of its Italianate design.
